Appearance

Swiss Valley is a family-oriented business that adheres to a strict appearance and behavior code which in part consists of the following:

- No unnatural hair color.
- No facial jewelry, which includes nose rings, tongue studs, nose studs, eyebrow studs, large earrings.
- No excessive or obscene tattoos.
- No extremely oversized clothing.
- No obscene, vulgar, or profane language, which includes text and images on clothing.

It is important that our image and professionalism be maintained. Any deviation from these codes may result in your dismissal. Administrative and Management Staff will be responsible for determining appropriate dress codes and adequate personal hygiene requirements. This area of criticism may become offensive to you, you must realize that it is a business accommodation and not meant to be personal. You may also be asked to purchase clothing items to meet departmental dress codes and standards. By signing this application you are agreeing to these terms.

Wages: Paid bi-weekly. After 6 months, any outstanding payroll checks will be considered a donation to our "Ski Dollars At Work Fund" and funds will be rerouted to the fund.

Cell Phones: No Cell Phone use during working hours. Cell Phones must be left in cars or a locker during working hours.

Flexibility:

The Swiss Valley hiring priority will lean heavily toward those applicants who have the most flexible hours available. If part-time, availability of evening in addition to every weekend is expected. Holidays (Christmas, New Years, etc.) must be covered if Swiss Valley is open for skiing. Even though the hours on Christmas Day do not start until noon, you will be expected to cover a shift or come in early for emergencies.

Hiring priority is given to the most hours available/flexibility.

Available Full-time: All hours, anytime (includes nights, weekends, holidays).

Available Part-time and Limited Hours: Please indicate days and hours available to work.
